Re: MUR 6572.

Dear Mr. Jordan:

I am in receipt of correspondence from you which was not dated, subject above, including the enclosures therewith. Please be advised that it is our belief that a mistake has been made and that the contributions made by myself, DeWayne Zinkin, and my son, DeWayne S. Zinkin, may have been mistakenly treated as one collective individual contribution, however, that is not the case. It is our belief that no fraudulent contributions have been made, and Danny Tarkanian has confirmed that and is providing documentary evidence to support that. The Complaint was addressed to my son, who has been out of town on business, and did not review the Complaint until this week. He provided the Complaint to me yesterday, and this is the first opportunity I have had to preliminarily review your correspondence and the Complaint. We respectfully request that this action be dismissed and, in the event you are not able to grant a dismissal, that an extension be granted to allow us time to formally respond to the Complaint.

If you have any questions, please call.

Sincerely,

DeWayne Zinkin
Attorney at Law
